

Index of Materials for September 21, 2009 Task Force Meeting

Document	Context for It	Preparing for Meeting
Agenda for September 21, 2009 (Item V on the agenda)	Indicates desired results and items for consideration	Review for understanding what will be done at the meeting
Level of Analysis (Item VIII on the agenda)	Indicates the level of analysis required for various aspects of a project at the planning, preliminary design and implementation stages, and what was done for the NBOL Study. (information only)	Use as a reference when considering the facility design.
Concerns and Comments Related to the Facility Type (Item VIII on the agenda)	An initial list of representative concerns and comments taken from the interviews with the Task Force members in March and April	Review and add to them during the small group discussion.
Facility Types overview (Item VIII on the agenda)	The document shows the facility types that were considered as well as the capacity, corridor width, right of way width and interchange needs for each type	For your review. If you want more information, refer to the Study Report, p. 49-60 on the design criteria and the facility types considered as well as illustrations of the interchange types. Additional information is available in Appendix 1, "PMPPT Final 06-18-2007.pdf," slides 22-36
Recap of the Activities for identifying the facility types that were part of the public involvement	The information and activities related to the identification of the facility types for the	For your review

Document	Context for It	Preparing for Meeting
(Item VIII on the agenda)	study.
Facility Type Worksheet (Item VIII on the agenda)	Questions the small group will be asked to respond to regarding information on the process for identifying the facility type and the group's recommendations.	Review so you know beforehand the questions to be asked in the small groups.
Updated Schedule (Item X on the agenda)	Shows the change in topics for the October, November and December meetings	For your information
Facility Type Illustrations	Shows the features of the different facility types considered.	For your information